

World Mountain Running Championships Statement

The 2015 World Mountain Running Championships will be held on the 19th of September in Betws-Y-Coed, North Wales.

The policy for this Championship will be released by the beginning of May on our Calendars page.

The New Zealand Mountain Running Championships will be a compulsory trial for the team selection. If this is not achievable for those seeking selection or should there be any enquiries regarding this, please do not hesitate to contact Teams.
